United States Land Office

SACRAMENTO CITY, CAL.
September 30, 1890.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT IN compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled an act for the sale of timber lands in the State of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory, Allen C. Bragg, of Reno, County of Washoe, State of Nevada, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 129, for the purchase of the NW 1/4 of Section No. 8, in Township 19 N., Range 12 E., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office, at Sacramento, Cal., on Monday, the 29th day of December, 1890.
He names as witnesses: Charles A. Bragg, R. L. Fulton, James Mayberry and Thos. K.
Stewart, all of Reno, Nevada.
Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before the 29th day of December, 1890.

The Banks Holding a Good Surplus.

The Irish Cases.

TIPPERARY, Oct. 4.—Upon the reassembling of the Court this morning Redmond, counsel for Dillon and O'Brien, asked for an adjournment until Tuesday. He stated that he and his fellow counsel, Timothy Healy, had an important engagement on Monday.

Honan, prosecutor for the crown, opposed delay and charged the defendants with creating every possible obstacle to prolong the case.

Redmond declared that one of the defendants, O'Mahoney, was ill, and it was impossible for him to attend the trial at present.

The presiding magistrate announced that the court would adjourn until the physician attending O'Mahoney could be heard from.

Will be Extradited.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Castioni, the Radical who shot and killed Councillor Rossi at Bellinzona, Switzerland, during the recent revolt, was arrested today at Chelsea. An application for his extradition will be made.

Castioni was found in a shed in a garden attached to his house. He was surrounded by a number of friends, all of whom were armed. The police seized 200 rounds of ammunition.

When Castioni was taken before the magistrate his counsel stated the question was raised as to whether the act of the prisoner was of a political nature, and was therefore an act for which he could be extradited. The prisoner was remanded.

Another Open Switch.

HELENA, (Mont.), Oct. 4.—An accident occurred to the east-bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific at Mullar last night, caused by an open switch, the train colliding with an engine standing on the track. Engineer Masser was killed and the fireman badly hurt. No passengers injured.

Realizes His Fate.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., October 4.—Burch-hall is said to be at last beginning to realize his impending fate, and to be showing slight signs of seriousness.
Mrs. Burchhall is improving, and she is now able to leave her bed. She has not seen her husband since his sentence was passed.

Our Foreign Visitors.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—Two special trains, which left New York this morning, bearing the visiting iron and steel men from England and Germany, arrived at 11 A. M. The visitors inspected the great Diston Saw and File Works and made a trip down the river to Newcastle.

Weekly Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The bank statement shows a reserve decrease of $2,564,200. The banks hold $11,500,000 in excess of the requirements.

The New Tariff Law.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Secretary Windom, Assistant Secretaries Spaulding and Nettleton and General Appraiser Richeson spent the day over questions that have arisen in regard to the execution of the new tariff law, which takes effect on Monday morning. Several importers, desirous of receiving the full benefit of the existing tariff rates, applied to the Treasury Department for permission to enter their goods at the custom houses up to midnight on Sunday.

Assistant Secretary Spaulding has informed them that this is a matter entirely within the discretion of the Collectors of Customs at the various ports, and that the department is not disposed to interfere in the matter.
General Spaulding said to-day that he did not anticipate any trouble with regard to the execution of the new law on the Pacific Coast by reason of the failure of the customs officers to receive official copies of the law at the date it goes into operation, as entries made on and after Monday, under the present law, can be readily liquidated under the new rates with very little extra labor.

OUR NAVAL CADET.

A Credit to Himself and to the Entire State.

The Enterprise says: Roscoe C.
Bulmer, Nevada's representative at the United States Naval Academy, last week passed a most creditable examination at Annapolis, and has been admitted to the academy.

He was examined in all the branches that were required in the competitive examination at Reno in July last, where, it will be remembered, he stood highest among the candidates.
He also stood high at Annapolis in every study.

The candidates at the Naval Academy are examined in sections, as so many are to be examined each year, that all could not be examined at once.
Master Roscoe was assigned to the section examined last week. Out of the twenty in the section then examined but four were successful, and Roscoe was one of the four.

When it is remembered that the Annapolis examinations are more thorough and difficult than those of West Point, it will be apparent that young Bulmer has scored not only a creditable victory for himself, but for Nevada as well. So many candidates from all the older States fail, that it is refreshing to know that Nevada boys can win in an intellectual contest. The Virginia High School has a worthy graduate in Roscoe C.
Bulmer.

McMahon's Circus.

This organization arrived to-day and spread their canvas in Powning's Addition. The performance this afternoon was excellent, and beyond doubt equals any seen in Reno for years.
The acrobats are without peers, and William Ash, the clown, is a comedian of talent. John S. McMahon, the four-horse rider, is daring, and Mlle.
Alma is a most graceful equestrienne.
The performing elephants are worth the price of admission, and Queen Jumbo is the largest elephant now living in America. Taken altogether, this is a meritorious show and deserves patronage.

For County Clerk.

Charles J. Campbell announces himself as a candidate for the office of County Clerk, subject to the decision of the Republican Convention. Mr.
Campbell is well known to nearly every one in this county, where he has lived for the past fifteen or twenty years. He was for a long time employed as bookkeeper for Manning & Duck, and is in every way qualified for the position he seeks.

Fall and Winter Stock.

Attention is especially called to the new ad. in to-day's paper of the Palace Dry Goods and Carpet House, a reference to which will convince you that nothing is saved by sending away from home for the kind of goods carried by this reliable firm.

Kind Words.

The Carson Tribune pays the Gazette this compliment: "The RENO GAZETTE, one of the hardest workers for Nevada's interests, has entered upon a new volume. It is a credit to Washoe county."

ton's temperance lectures at the Indian Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, October 4.—The President has appointed the following Commissioners on Indian Affairs:
W. H. H. Dufur, of Dufur, Oregon; Mark A. Fuller, of Colfax, Washington; and William W. Dell, of Clearfield, Pa., to visit the Warm Spring Indian Reservation in Oregon and report on the proper location of the northern line of that reservation, and negotiate with the Indians for the cession of a part of that reservation.
John Sephas, Jr., of Grand Forks, N.
D., and Bradley B. Smalley, of Burlington, Vt., will negotiate with the northern band of the Cheyennes on the Tongue river reservation, Montana.

A Postal Appointment.

WASHINGTON, October 4.—Captain James E. White, Superintendent of the Sixth Division Railway Mail Service, with headquarters at Chicago, has been appointed General Superintendent of the railway mail service at Washington, vice, J. Dowrie Bell, recently appointed Second Assistant Postmaster General. Troy, Assistant Superintendent of the Sixth Division, has been appointed Superintendent of that division in the place of White.

The Postmaster-General has issued an order placing the railway mail service under the direct supervision of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General.

A Muscular Speaker.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The Speaker's desk in the House was a source of amusement to the few visitors at the Capitol to-day. The blue baize covering had been removed, and the right half of the desk, where the gavel of the Speaker fell, was found to be nothing but a mass of splinters about the size of matches. Many of these splinters were taken away by the visitors as souvenirs of the Fifty-first Congress.

Business Failure.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 4.—The well-known firm of Fleming Bros., wholesale manufacturers of and dealers in proprietary medicines, assigned to-day.
The liabilities are $500,000, with the assets at twice that figure.

Escaped Lepers and Convicts.

PARIS, Sept. 4.—Intelligence is received from Novema, New Caledonia, that sixty lepers and convicts who escaped last June, and the authorities have been unable to discover their whereabouts.

Entertaining Their Friends.

See to it.

Several prominent Democrats are working in Mr. Foley's interest, promising that they (the Democrats) will not put up any strong man against him. That means the dirtiest kind of a dirty trade. It means that everybody who receives a nomination on the Republican ticket below the Legislature will be traded off for Democratic votes for the Republican Legislative ticket. It has been done before in this county, and will be again, unless the other candidates and their friends get together and block the little game. For the honor of all right thinking Democrats and Republicans we hope to see the scheme nipped in the bud. Let each party put up the very best and strongest men they have for every office within the gift of the people, and no matter which side wins we are sure of good government.

Don't let your birth right be traded off in the interest of any man or clique, but say to the henchmen who are bartering off your rights that they had better go slow, for there is a day of reckoning coming. This note of warning is sounded in time to head off any such underhanded way of conducting a campaign, and if the delegates, candidates and their friends see to it, it can be stopped. At any rate the GAZETTE has done its duty.

Are the people of this county going to submit to M. D. Foley coming here from Eureka, and before he hardly has time to warm a seat in the county, put himself up for the best office within our gift and insult us by asking whom we have that can serve us as well. We greatly misjudge the sentiment of the people if they do not resent the insult by telling Mr. Foley to wait a time with patience, then if found worthy he will be rewarded—but not now. It would be much more modest on the part of Mr. Foley if he had waited until a demand had been made for his services before precipitating himself upon the people and saying you have got to shoulder me whether you want to or not. The GAZETTE believes it voices the best interest of the people of the county in its opposition to Mr. Foley; it believes, too, that a large majority of the people heartily endorse all that it has ever said against his candidacy; we believe that if the convention gives him the nomination it will be making a grave mistake, but do not believe that a set of representative men, such as have been chosen delegates, will allow themselves to be wheedled into supporting him.

The Journal very properly asks: "Is Reno or Washoe county to be bonded to take the Donner Lake scheme, and if so, for how much? What do the people say about it?"

The question cannot be more completely answered than by quoting the closing paragraph of Mr. Newlands' pamphlet addressed to the people of Nevada on water storage and irrigation, which reads as follows:

This communication is addressed to the public before the meeting of the political conventions and the session of the Legislature in the hope that it may furnish food for reflection and result in the adoption of a broad and comprehensive policy. The purchases which I have made, and to which I have alluded, have simply been made to aid this work, and without view of profit, but if the State should not take charge of the matter at the coming session of the Legislature, I shall then hold myself free to pursue such a course (as a matter of private enterprise and profit) as I may deem proper, either to secure the reimbursement of my expenditures or the development of my purchases.

The Reno Gazette has entered upon its fifteenth year. It is a good newspaper and might be a power in the State, if it had more regard for truth. [Silver State.]

The GAZETTE returns the compliment by adding that the Silver State might be possessed of some influence if it had ANY regard for truth.

The Democrats constructed a platform at their Convention that as a "vote catcher" is a failure, and they used lumber enough to ground sluice the whole works. General Clarke is too honest to draft a platform for the Democracy to stand on.

R. K. COLCORD is making a manly fight for Governor, and is gaining new friends daily. The "charges" of the Democratic press go up in smoke as fast as they are made. The fact is, Mr. Colcord is too well known to the laboring classes of this State to suit the Democracy. He is a mechanic and a friend of labor, and has always earned his bread by the sweat of his brow. That he is not a rich man is no crime. That he is a gentleman in every way qualified for the dignified position of Governor is granted on every hand. That he is not a political boss, never was, nor never will be, also speaks volumes for him. He is a man chosen from the rank and file of labor for his personal worth, and is just as sure of being elected Governor as the sun is to rise on the 4th of November.

It is estimated that Senator Foley will be nominated for State Senator by a vote of 65 to 32.—Journal.

Who makes the estimate? The Journal man is given to counting his chickens before they are hatched, and that is given as one reason why he so frequently gets left in his calculations in a political fight. Why not claim the whole works and be done with it, for talk is cheap?

When the Mormons number one-fifth of the population of Arizona it is quite time for the Territory to ask the protection of restrictive Congressional legislation. It is understood that they already control the politics of some counties and are gaining rapidly in numbers, some of them coming from Europe consigned to Arizona direct.

What a field Arizona will soon be for Editors Kelley and Cassidy, both of whom have heretofore favored the annexation of Nevada to Mormonism.

THE FARJEON CHILDREN.

How They Amuse Joseph Jefferson, Their Beloved Grandfather.

B. L. Farjeon, the novelist, is Joseph Jefferson's son-in-law; he lives in London, has a lovely home, a charming family, and he entertains delightfully. From all I hear, writes Eugene Field in the Chicago News, I judge that his three little children must be prodigies. The youngest is named after his grandpa and he seems to have inherited his grandpa's fondness and facility for art. Curiously enough he is the picture of Jefferson—having the same bright blue eyes, delicate features and characteristic smile. The oldest boy—I think his name is Frank—is always saying and doing bright things. A year ago Mrs. Madge Kendall spent the day with Mrs. Farjeon, and the two ladies enjoyed a good old-fashioned gossip all the afternoon; the way they discussed and criticized all their acquaintances was simply a caution. Next day Master Frank remarked at dinner: "Papa, I have written out with the type-writer all that mamma and Mrs. Kendall said yesterday." And so the wretched child had; all the scandal and gossip was reported with shocking fidelity, and may be Mr. Farjeon didn't have a lovely time reading it aloud to his astounded spouse. The experience taught Mrs. Farjeon a serious lesson.

Not long ago the Farjeon children went with their mother to service in one of the neighboring churches where the rector was an extreme ritualist. Wearing by all the ceremony, little Joe Farjeon finally whispered hoarsely to his mother, when the sermon was about half through: "Come on, mamma, let's go; don't let's wait for the last act!"

The children write plays for their grandpa. Very thrilling plays they are, too. Grandpa Jefferson enjoys them hugely, but one day, while reading one of these productions, he stopped and asked: "Frank, what do all these blanks mean? There doesn't seem to be any sense at all."

"That's where you are to swear, grandpa," explained the child. "We left it blank on purpose, because we knew you could do it better than we could."

FULL OF BUSINESS.

A Woman Who Knows How to Make Money Without Working for It.

There was a party of us on the train going to the Rocky mountains, says a correspondent of the St. Joseph (Mo.) News, and the news agent badgered us so that one of us got a lurid narrative of Jesse James' life just to get rid of the fellow. He read pieces of it to us and we got so enthusiastic that we stopped off a day at St. Joseph to look at the house Jesse was killed in.

When we had climbed the bluff at Convent Hill and a darkly pointed out the shanty, our ardor began to diminish. We knocked at the door and a woman opened it, looked at us awhile, and then said: "Want to see the house Jesse James was shot in?"

We said we did.

"Well, this is it. Just come right in. There ain't no shooting around here now." We came into a miserably furnished room, and passing through she showed us a perfectly bare room.

"That's it. Just as it was the day they shot 'im. Right that's what he stood. Right outside this window's where the Ford boys stood."

"The floor was all whitened and pieces cut out of it. One of us suggested that we get some relics to take back East with us."

"We would like to have a small piece of the floor as a memento," said one.

"Well," she said, "we don't make no habit of selling such, but seein' as you's all the way from back East, why, I'll let you have a piece each at half a dollar apiece."

The Druggists

In Lowell, Mass., agree in saying that they sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than all other blood purifiers. For instance: F. C. GOODALE: I sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than all other blood purifiers. A. W. DOWS & CO.: Hood's takes the lead of all other Sarsaparillas.

G. F. BLANCHARD: We sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than any other. MANNING & SONS: With us the sale of Hood's is 9 to 1 of any other kind.

F. & E. RILEY & CO.: Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines. CARLTON & HOVEY: Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the best medicines we have. Its sale increases every year.

F. R. MOODY: We sell twice as much of Hood's Sarsaparilla as of anything similar. C. A. SWAN: Hood's is the most popular Sarsaparilla of the day.

Thirty Oregon druggists speak similarly. This popularity at home, where Hood's Sarsaparilla and its propolis have been known for many years, could not confirm if the medicine did not possess merit. And these facts should certainly convince people in other sections of the country that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good, reliable medicine.

ARCADIA SALOON.

H. E. DAVIS & CO., PROPRIETORS.

THIS SALOON HAS BEEN RECENTLY fitted up in the most modern style, and is presided over by Harry Davis, late of the Depot Hotel, whom everybody knows.

The children write plays for their grandpa. Very thrilling plays they are, too. Grandpa Jefferson enjoys them hugely, but one day, while reading one of these productions, he stopped and asked: "Frank, what do all these blanks mean? There doesn't seem to be any sense at all."

"That's where you are to swear, grandpa," explained the child. "We left it blank on purpose, because we knew you could do it better than we could."

FULL OF BUSINESS.

A Woman Who Knows How to Make Money Without Working for It.

There was a party of us on the train going to the Rocky mountains, says a correspondent of the St. Joseph (Mo.)

News, and the news agent badgered us so that one of us got a lurid narrative of Jesse James' life just to get rid of the fellow. He read pieces of it to us and we got so enthusiastic that we stopped off a day at St. Joseph to look at the house Jesse was killed in.

When we had climbed the bluff at Convent Hill and a darkly pointed out the shanty, our ardor began to diminish.

We knocked at the door and a woman opened it, looked at us awhile, and then said: "Want to see the house Jesse James was shot in?"

We said we did.

"Well, this is it. Just come right in.

There ain't no shooting around here now." We came into a miserably furnished room, and passing through she showed us a perfectly bare room.

"That's it. Just as it was the day they shot 'im. Right that's what he stood. Right outside this window's where the Ford boys stood."

"The floor was all whitened and pieces cut out of it. One of us suggested that we get some relics to take back East with us."

"We would like to have a small piece of the floor as a memento," said one.

"Well," she said, "we don't make no habit of selling such, but seein' as you's all the way from back East, why, I'll let you have a piece each at half a dollar apiece."

PLATFORM & RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Republican State Convention held at Virginia, Nevada, September 4, 1890:

It is the policy of the Republican party in all things it has been the direct opponent of the Democratic party. Grand in its ambition and impulses, firm and resolute in its consistency, strong in its devotion to principle, it is now, as it has been from its birth, the representative of all that is best and noblest in its own country and the hope and promise of a better future for the human race.

POLITICAL.
and Garfield will shine like electric lights on the pages of history.
The Republicans of Nevada, in convention assembled, heartily endorse the policy of the fifty-first Congress, which has made greater advances in correct and needed legislation than any since the war.

The crime of filibustering, so often reported to by the Democratic party for the purpose of defeating legislation and blocking the wheels of government, has been done away with by the action of the McKinley and their associates, and the offenders taught that congressmen are paid by the people for making good laws and not bad politics.

It had, by a strict party vote, placed the silver question on a basis that will lead naturally to free coinage and disarm all opposition among financiers.

It has taken up the work of a re-adjustment of the tariff in a party to be just ness like war, such as will protect the interests of labor and at the same time encourage capital and enterprise that will furnish it with employment at good wages.

New States, which were denied their rights before, have been admitted to the Union, and the people of the Territory upon the Presidency broken.

Trusts that grew rank under Cleveland's administration have been broken up and made to obey the laws of honest commerce.

Efforts are being made to prevent or punish frauds and intimidations in elections.

A navy has been provided for an insufficient pension granted to prevent suffering among the sick and wounded heroes of the war.

Provision is being made for the reclamation of the arid regions, where the Republican policy of free homes and free schools can be best extended.

Uncleared land grants are being restored to the public domain and the land thrown open to settlement, and in all things the pledges of the National platform are being amply redeemed.

We endorse the Administration of President Harrison, and commend his conservative course as striking in contrast with his predecessor in office.

During the former Administration silver wheat, and farmers burned their corn for fuel. Trusts were stimulated, business depressed, and the people the mail service was demoralized, and business found itself oppressed instead of being encouraged by the methods of the government, whose whole business should be to benefit the country.

To-day silver, wheat, lead, and all the products of labor are rapidly rising, and while the Democratic officials may declare the innocent of intentional deception, the results of their policy will be for crimes. Under Harrison, Chinese and contract labor are being driven out of the country, American laborers and mechanics protected, agriculture is encouraged by a dependent interest conducted for its benefit, and the law administered in a wise, firm and patriotic manner. In preventing its disfranchisement of the voters of Nevada, the Republican party pledges its nominees to retrenchment wherever it is possible in county and State expenditures.

We pledge our nominees to a system of State improvements which shall save the water now running to waste, and the means to secure its use in the irrigation of the fertile lands now lying idle.

We endorse the measure introduced by Senator Stewart proposing to cede the lands within our borders to the State for the purpose of aiding to improve our water supply and irrigation systems, and we appeal to Congress and the President to grant this much-needed aid.

We endorse the course of our Senators and Representative in Congress, and commend their efforts to establish on a better basis the use of silver as money, and we reaffirm our uncompromising demand for the free coinage of both gold and silver and their equal status in our national currency.

Whereas, The practice of letting mail contracts in this State to non-residents who are not subject to the laws of the State, and who are not subject to the jurisdiction of the courts, and who are not subject to the laws of the State, and who are not subject to the jurisdiction of the courts, has resulted in an inferior and impaired mail service;

Resolved, That our delegation in Congress be requested to procure, if possible, the enactment of a law to prevent such abuses in the future.

We are in favor of the improvement of the wages of American labor by restricting immigration from foreign countries, a thorough revision of our naturalization and land laws, the construction of naval and coast defenses, the fostering of free schools and popular education, the enforcement of a free ballot and fair count, cherishing the defenses of our country, the protection of every citizen in his rights at home and abroad, the fostering of a policy that will extend commerce the settling of all foreign complications by arbitration, and liberal appropriations for Congress for the construction of water reservoirs and a system of irrigation.

Resolved, That as at the coming election the question as to whether or not a Constitutional Convention will be held is to be submitted to the people, that we earnestly invite calm and thorough discussion of the question during the campaign.

Resolved, That it is the policy of the Republican party of Nevada to secure all safe and reasonable retrenchments in public affairs, and especially in dispensing with unnecessary offices and positions, and in adjusting salaries upon a basis of services performed, decreasing the per diem allowance and reducing the number of and lessening the number of members of the Legislature, in the reduction of taxation and in consolidating county offices and diminishing county expenses, and to this end we pledge the nominees of this convention, and earnestly ask that the nominees of the several county conventions be likewise obligated.

TURNED TO STONE.
A Strange Story from Claiborne County, Tennessee.

A Big Green Cloud Passes over the Lick Skillet Country and Petrifies Hogs as Well as a Field of Corn—The Yarn of the Season.

The people in the eastern portion of Claiborne County, Tenn., are excited over a remarkable occurrence which took place there not long ago. It is one of the most marvelous occurrences ever heard of, and it will prove to be a problem over which scientific minds may wrestle for some time to come.

Edgar Ramsey is a farmer who lives five miles from Lick Skillet. He arrived in Middleboro recently. The story he told would not find believers at first, but since then it has been proven that he has told nothing but the truth. His statement is thus reported by a correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat:

"Last Sunday afternoon I noticed what appeared to be a large green looking cloud coming from a westerly direction toward my house. It was a long distance off, and the rain was falling heavily. Shortly afterward it became very cold, in fact so cold that I went indoors, lit a big fire and put on a big heavy coat. When I came out again the big green cloud was almost over the house, and the air was as cold as on a winter day. The wind howled and the fall fell in stones as big as eggs. All this lasted twenty minutes, and then the sky cleared up and I felt more like myself again.

"An hour after I was sitting with my wife near the fire when I heard a horse galloping at full speed, and when I went out to see who it was there stood Jake Warren, a neighbor farmer who lives about a mile and a quarter from me. He was as pale as a ghost and was trembling all over. It took him over ten minutes to commence to tell me what he had to say, and as he was talking I thought he was crazy.

"He stated that a big green cloud had come over his place, and that something which looked like balls of fire had fallen all around his house. He had five acres of corn growing in a field next to the house. After the storm had cleared away he went to see what damage had been done. He saw that some corn had been blown down, and that something
all around his house. He had five

the house. After the storm had cleared
